2022 TUTTO BIANCO d'SOUMAH

2022 VINTAGE

A warmer than average winter saw an earlier bud burst. Spring witnessed 100mm more rain than normal and unsettled weather at flowering significantly lowered the crop. Summer was one degree hotter than the 25 year average, although we evidenced no excessive heat spikes. Overall, a wetter and hotter year, with low yeild delivered a small but high-quality crop.

VITICULTURE & WINEMAKING

Crisp and refreshing, this dry white follows the Italian tradition of blending all varieties from the vineyard into one multifaceted and complete wine. As the acronym on the front label suggests, this is a blend of our Savagnin, Chardonnay, Viognier and Pinot Grigio. We blend these in varying quantities, ensuring the wine is the complete package of fruit and balanced acidity. It is a wine from our hills and speaks of the land on which it is grown.

TASTING

This is the perfect summer wine. Crisp and dry with lifted citrus notes. It's refreshing flavours leave the palate with a clean finish.

PAIRING

Serve with a fresh prawn pasta with herbs, a dash of chilli and lemon juice.
